

Avian Health Workshop

December 14, 2004

9:30 – 3:30

Adams Conference Center

College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Missouri

Sponsored by the Missouri Department of Agriculture, Veterinary
Services of USDA and The Poultry Federation

Speakers Include:

- Dr. Cheryl Hall, USDA/VS
- Dr. David Suarez, SEPRL
- Dr. Dustan Clark, U of A
- Dr. Alex Bermudez, UMC
- Dr. Steve Goff, MDA

Hear the latest on avian health issues such as Avian Influenza and Exotic Newcastle Disease. This workshop is open to interested graduate veterinarians and 3rd and 4th year veterinary students.

Registration includes lunch, AAAP Avian Disease CD, parking and Continuing Education fees. Space is limited to the first 60 registrants.

Pre-Registration Information

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

ف Student - $10.00

ف Graduate veterinarian - $20.00

Please make check or money order payable to TPF and return in the enclosed pre-addressed, postage paid envelope.

For more information call:

Rose Foster, MDA-Poultry Health Program

573-522-3377 or e-mail to Rose.Foster@mda.mo.gov